

A WEST IRISH BALLAD

words: anon., transl. Lady Gregory music: Clare Maclean.

soffo voce

mp

s

s

a t

b

10

s

a

t

b

each accidental is marked unless immediately repeated. ♯ = ♯ throughout the piece.

S: bird through the woods; and that you may be with- out a mate

A: - - ly bird -

S: till you find me.

A: you pro - - mised me, and

mf

S: You pro - - mised me that you

A: you said a lie to me, that you would be before me where the

mp (>) (>) sim

S: would be be - -

A: sheep are flocked; I gave a whis - - tle and three hundred cries

S: fore me and I found no - - thing but

A: to you, and I found no - - thing, no - - thing there

(div a 3 ->) (div a 2 ->)

3

S1 (but) a blea - ting lamb mf you pro - mised me

S2 (but) a blea - ting lamb

S3 (but) a blea - ting lamb mf you pro - mised me

A1 but a blea - - - ting lamb.

A2 but a blea - - - ting lamb.

40

S1 a thing that is not pos - si - ble that you would give me gloves

S2 mp a thing not pos - si - ble; that

S3 mp you pro - mised me a

A1 mp a thing not pos - si - ble

A2