

A Farewell

SATB unaccompanied music: David Hamilton (2008)

text: A.R.D. Fairburn

$\text{♩} = 60-66$ Very broadly

Soprano
p What is there left to be said, to be said? There is no-thing we can

Alto
p What is there left to be said? There is no-thing we can

Tenor
p What is there left to be said? There is no-thing we can

Bass
p What is there left to be said? There is no-thing we can

Piano
p

5

S.
say, no-thing at all to be done, to be done to un-do the time of

A. say, no-thing at all to be done, to be done to un-do the time of

T.
say, no-thing at all to be done, to be done to un-do the time of

B. say, no-thing at all to be done to un-do the time of Pno.

2

9 rit.

S. day; no words to make the sun roll east, p orraise the dead.

A. day; no words to make the sun roll east, p orraise the dead.

T. 8 day; no words to make the sun roll east, p orraise the dead, the

B. day; no words to make the sun roll east, p orraise the dead, the Pno.

14 A tempo

S. p I loved you as I love life, I love life: the

A. p I loved you as I love life, I love life: the hand the

T. 8 dead. p I loved you as I love life, I love life: the hand I

B. dead. p I loved you as I love life: the

Pno. A tempo