Snares on.
 Insert marbles deliberately one by one into your mouth.
 After each marble inhale through your nose.
 Insert as many marbles as your can safely handle.
 Hold your breath until you can hold it no longer.
 With your face close to the drum, exhale through your mouth and expel the marbles onto the drum head.
 Pause until marbles have stopped rolling.
 Sing the resonant frequency into the hole at the side of the drum:

Carefully lift drum off stand and tilt to roll marbles around the rim. Once the marbles are in a state of steady circular motion, allow the marbles to hypnotize you, be drawn into the sound and pattern, and begin to chant (adjust the pitch to the resonance of the drum, repeating each measure ad lib.):
