

The Courtship of the Yonghy-Bonghy-Bò

Poem by
EDWARD LEAR

Music by
JENNY McLEOD

Freely ($\text{♩} = 76$)

Alto mf On the coast of Co-ro-man-del Where the ear-ly pump-kins blow, In the

Tenor mp On the coast of

S mf [A] Two old chairs and half a can-dle,

A mf mid-dle of the woods Lived the Yong-hy Bong-hy Bò. Two old chairs and half a can-dle,

T mf Co-ro-man-del, Two old chairs and half a can-dle,

B mf Two old chairs and half a can-dle,

[B]

S one old jug with-out a han-dle,

A mf one old jug with-out a han-dle, These were all his world-ly goods: in the mid-dle of the woods,

T mp one old jug with-out a han-dle, Yong-hy Bong-hy

B one old jug with-out a han-dle,