

Surrealist Landscape

for SATB, piano and optional woodblock

Composed for the University of Canterbury MUSOC's 1975 production The Life and Works of Ivanich Hackernackeroff, a not-so-well-known Russian composer who settled in Taranaki, New Zealand, before immigration records were properly kept. Surrealist Landscape was one of a handful of surviving works that also included Cantata for Taranaki Rugby Team, Composition for Choir with Laryngitis, Sonata for Four Cakemixers and the one-act comic operetta Pierrot Lunatic.
